E3 2019: Five Magical Experiences

Events Mister Rezzee May 30, 2019

Don't look now, but E3 is less than two weeks away! You may have heard that we'll be attending the event this year, and we can't wait to share all our experiences with you. As the big week gets closer, we're excited to share five things that we're most excited about heading into E3:

Xbox E3 Briefing

"World premiere". These two words are enough to give anyone goosebumps. We all tune in to the E3 briefing with different hopes and predictions, but we all share one thing in common. We want to see the future of gaming unfold first-hand. The Xbox E3 Briefing is one of the most exciting events at E3, and we can't wait to see what it has in store for us this year.

The Xbox E3 Briefing will be held on Sunday, June 9th at 1pm PDT, streaming live on Mixer in true 4K Ultra HD.

Xbox Ambassadors Meet & Greet

For us, the best part of any event we attend is getting to meet our amazing Xbox Ambassadors community. That's why we've partnered with the Century City Microsoft Store to host a Meet & Greet that features a viewing of Inside Xbox. We're looking forward to meeting everyone and discussing the big announcements out of the Xbox E3 Briefing!

The Xbox Ambassadors Meet & Greet will be held on Monday, June 10th from 2-5pm PDT at the Century City Microsoft Store.

Xbox FanFest

Are we excited to experience the coolest Xbox fan event in the world? What about sharing our experience first-hand from the fan showcase in downtown LA? Hanging out with a packed house of passionate Xbox fans? Yes, yes, and YES! We might be biased, but we'd put Xbox FanFest at the top of the "coolest fan experiences" list, and we are counting down the days until we can attend.

Xbox FanFest requires a ticket for entry. Click here for more information on Xbox FanFest.

EA Play

Apex Legends. Anthem. New Battlefield V content. FIFA 20. Madden 20. Star Wars Jedi: Fallen Order. Regardless of which title you're most excited for, EA Play is looking to be a great time. If you see us at the event, be sure to say hi! We can't wait to share our hands-on experiences with the latest EA titles.

EA Play will be held Saturday, June 8th and Sunday, June 9th at the Hollywood Palladium. You can register for free tickets here.

Keeping up on social

Finally, we're excited to share the magic of E3 2019 with you, whether you're attending in person or following along from home. We'll be posting our reactions, hands-on impressions, and first-hand experiences from LA to our Twitter and Instagram. Be sure to give us a follow and share your excitement with us!
